Tamkang University, Damsui, Taipei County, Taiwan, R.O.C.
<http://ics2008.csie.tku.edu.tw>

Sponsored by
Ministry of Education
Computer Society of the Republic of China
The National Science Council, and
Tamkang University

Founded by the Ministry of Education, ICS is one of the largest joint international IT symposiums held in Taiwan, the Republic of China. The symposium provides a forum for researchers, educators, and industrial professionals to share research contributions and to discuss potential new trends in the IT industry. In addition to regular presentations by the authors of accepted papers, the symposium will invite state-of-the-art keynote addresses, tutorials, and possibly panel discussions. Following the regularity of the symposium, a wide spectrum of research topics will be included in various tracks/workshops. These tracks include the most recent hot research topics in the international IT societies. This year, ICS 2008 is held in one of the best locations for conference in Taiwan. Tamkang University is located close to the northern seashore of Taiwan, with nearby famous sightseeing spots such as Yang-Ming Mountain and the National Palace Museum.
